

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second-Class Matter.

E. D. AKE : EDITOR.

VOLUME XLVI. NUMBER 45.

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY - APR 17, 1913.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Clansman, Thursday, April 17th. No. 4 did not get here until 11 o'clock last Thursday night.

Men's fine woolen suits—latest approved models—$10.00 and up at Lopez's.

R. E. Johnston, we are told, is arranging to establish a beer depot in Bellevue.

Jas. G. Newman has a new horse he bought while in the west end of the county last week.

Hardy, the new confectioner in the Willard hotel building, received an $800 soda fountain last week.

The thermometer scarcely got above 40 last Friday. A year ago the same day 80 degrees was recorded.

Who can save you money? We can. "We can save you money."

B. N. BROWN.

Lost—One sunburst brooch, on March 30, in Ironton or Arcadia. Finder return to this office and receive reward.

The Holloman Brothers, of Hogan, are hauling material for the building of two bungalows on the Methodist Assembly Grounds.

The County Board of Equalization completed its labors last Wednesday. The Board of Appeals will be in session, Monday, April 28th.

The Third Quarterly meeting for the Fort Hill Methodist Church will be next Sunday evening. Rev. Wm. Court, P. E., of Farmington, preaching.

Former Judge of the county court, James O. Scott, is reported very sick at his home at Goodwater. We hope to hear of an improvement in his condition.

R. G. Farmer, who was so seriously injured nearly three months ago, was able to get out on the street for the first time since his accident, last week. He is doing well.

Mike Shay, we understand, has leased the Kerwin property in Graniteville, and will make application for saloon license at the May term of county court.

Frank Nejam of Mineral Point, who recently purchased Con. Kendall's store fixtures, will be here this week. Mr. Kendall has disposed of his stock to other parties.

A dozen students from the School of Mines, Rolla, Mo., were quartered at the Commercial Hotel several days of last week. They were making mineral investigations in the valley.

Dr. Howard & Co., Veterinary Surgeons and Veterinary Dentists of 3105 Laclede Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., will be in Ironton, Mo., Wednesday, April 23, 1913, prepared to do all kinds of veterinary work.

Henry G. Myers of Glover was an Ironton visitor Saturday. Mr. Myers says he has had his oats sowed and potatoes planted for several weeks, but they have made little progress because of the cold, damp weather.

Miss Ethel Yount, one of our Arcadia young ladies, was married to Mr. Louis Byington, of Hopewell, Mo., April 9th, at the Fort Hill parsonage, the pastor, Rev. J. R. A. Vaughn, officiating.

W. T. Gay went to St. Louis Monday evening to have a surgical operation performed by Dr. Mudd for some bladder trouble. Mr. Gay was accompanied by Mrs. Gay, Mrs. A. L. Schwab and Dr. R. W. Gay.

Mr. W. R. Allen, Jr., of Graniteville, will probably remove his family to Ironton this summer. He will be domiciled in the Baldwin property, north of Mr. S. P. Ringo's residence, and expects to remain there for the summer.

Services at the M. E. Church next Sunday: Sunday School, 9:45 A. M.; preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; Epworth League, 6:30 P. M.; Prayer-meeting Thursday night each week at 7:30 P. M.

REV. JAMES A. KIRKMAN, Pastor.

Teachers' Notice—All those expecting to attend the Graniteville Review School, are requested to write me at once and arrange for board. Date, April 28th to June 6th. Tuition $3.00 for term. Board, $5.00 per week.

S. M. DULANEY.

Last Saturday's St. Louis Republic contained the announcement from Washington, D. C., that Congressman Hensley had recommended the appointment of M. W. Daugherty as postmaster at Ironton. The appointment will probably be made in a few days.

The REGISTER last week made the statement that Otto Thomas would have the catering privileges at "Epworth Among the Hills" again this summer. This was an error; the privileges at Epworth for the coming season have not yet been let to any one. Nor have the privileges on Arcadia Heights for this year yet been awarded.

Public Administrator Paul P. Roentretter took charge of the estate of the late W. P. McCarver, of Pilot Knob last Wednesday. $28 in cash was found on his person and the personal property involved about $190. His stock of groceries was small and much of it had been on hand some time. It is likely that the real estate will have to be sold to pay the debts.

J. C. Morris has returned from St. Louis, where he recently underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis and bladder trouble. He is able to be at the store a few hours each day and his complete recovery appears to be a matter of only a few weeks.—Farmington News.

I take pleasure in calling attention to the Boatmen's Bank card published in this paper. It has the face of an old friend to thousands and its Vice-President, Mr. Thomson, is one of us, and has been for, lo, these many years. Both have the confidence and good-will of all.

Recorder Hawkins has issued the following marriage licenses since our last report:

Henry Orr of Leadwood and Julia Swearingin of Hogan.

Louis Byington of Hopewell and Ethel Yount of Ironton.

Carl O. Brum of Caledonia and Annie Monroe of Desloge.

Grover Shrum and Flora Tiefenauer of Munger.

Kenneth W. Houston and Ruby Lucille Reyburn.

W. R. Edgar, Jr. was in Poplar Bluff last week for the purpose of trying the case of Jim Ruble of Vulcan, this county, against W. A. Leach, a lumber man of Butler county. Ruble at one time bought ties for Leach; he afterwards bought ties for another party and Leach wrote a letter charging him with all kinds of bad deeds. Ruble brought suit for libel and asks $10,000 damages. The case was continued.

A telephone message was received in Ironton Tuesday morning announcing the death in St. Louis, 9 o'clock Monday night, of Chas. E. Dalton. The deceased was aged 36 years, 4 months and 14 days. The remains will be brought to Ironton on the noon train to-day (Wednesday) and the funeral will occur from the residence of Mr. T. B. Pruitt Thursday afternoon. Interment in the Masonic cemetery. To the bereaved widow and other relatives we extend sympathy.

Mrs. J. N. Bishop was hostess of the Ladies' social club April 8, 1913. As this was an April meeting everyone was supposed to respond to roll call with an April greeting. After necessary business the afternoon was pleasantly spent in a social way, interspersed with music and singing. An interesting contest followed in which Mrs. D. E. Morris was awarded the prize. Delicious refreshments were nicely served. Mrs. Sadie Fletcher will be next hostess April 22, 1913.

Rev. James A. Kirkman informs us that he will serve the Ironton M. E. Church as pastor during the ensuing year. The many friends he has made during his work here will regret to hear of Bro. Kirkman's departure. It is due him to say that he is zealous and efficient. His ancestors were pioneers of Methodism and their mantle has fallen upon him. Bro. Kirkman is widely known as the "Plover Evangelist." Ironton is to be congratulated.—Puxico Index.

An adjourned term of the Iron county circuit court will convene next Monday for the purpose of trying Chas. Parris, charged with raping Mrs. Lily Mullane as near Annapolis, Oct. 19th last. Judge Evans of West Plains will preside. Sheriff Blue will have a venire of fifty jurors on hand. It is thought that two of the cases will be disposed of next week. This will leave three defendants yet untried. The regular term of circuit court convenes April 28th. The docket is, we understand, somewhat larger than usual.

Mrs. Mary McCamey, wife of J. W. McCamey, who lives two miles east of Ironton, died in St. Louis, Wednesday, April 9, 1913, aged 61 years. Mrs. McCamey had been in poor health for a long time and had been taken to St. Louis for treatment. But her condition was such that nothing could be done. The remains were brought to Ironton Thursday, and the funeral occurred from the Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Riggs conducting the services. Interment was made in the K. P. cemetery. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of the community in his sorrow.

Missouri farmers can now serve as grand or petit jurors without the financial sacrifice heretofore entailed by this duty. The recent legislature provided that such jurors should hereafter receive three dollars a day. This will be appreciated especially by men who are forced to leave their farms and spend, one, two, or more weeks in a distant county seat serving on a jury. The amount heretofore paid was barely sufficient for their hotel and traveling expenses and left nothing with which to pay the hand ordinarily required to look after farm chores in the absence of the owner.

MARRIED—Monday, April 14, 1913, at the Fort Hill parsonage, Arcadia, Mo., by Rev. J. R. A. Vaughn, Dr. Kenneth W. Houston and Miss Ruby Lucille Reyburn—all of Ironton. The ceremony was performed at 3:00 o'clock P. M., and the bride and groom departed on their wedding trip on No. 4 same day. They will be gone several weeks, probably, but will be "at home" to their friends about June 1st. They will occupy the dwelling erected by the doctor, on West Wayne street, in anticipation of the event we here record. The REGISTER extends its heartiest wishes for the happiness and welfare of Dr. and Mrs. Houston.

The Woman's Home Mission Society of the Fort Hill Church had a splendid meeting at the home of Mrs. Burnham, April 10th. An entertaining program consisting of music, readings and talks was enjoyed by all. Miss Johnson delightfully entertained her hearers with some recitations. There were seventeen present and every one went away in excellent spirits. The W. H. M. Society is steadily increasing in numbers and the enthusiasm of its members is encouraging, to say the least. An interesting program is given each month and the ladies are pleased to see the good attendance both of members and visitors, whom we are always glad to have with us. PRESS SUPERINTENDENT.

Attorney W. H. Clopton, of St. Louis, recently secured $2500 from the Iron Mountain railroad company for the killing of Henry Berry at Tip Top December 18th last. Berry was employed in an extra gang that was spreading gravel at Tip Top. He got out of the way of an engine and train of cars and then stepped back on the rails in front of an engine that was following closely behind the first train. He was cut to pieces and death was instantaneous. A few weeks ago the widow retained Mr. Clopton to look after the interests of the estate, and he soon settled the matter with the railroad company, as above stated, without bringing a suit. Mr. Clopton received for his services $400.

From last Saturday's St. Louis Republic we learn that Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., for the third successive time won the State championship last Thursday night by defeating the debating teams of Central College of Fayette and Missouri Valley College of Marshall. This announcement is of special local interest for the reason that Fred S. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Russell, a student in Westminster College, is one of the members of the winning team. This is, indeed, quite an honor, and we congratulate the young man, and congratulate his parents, too. Fred has been a student in Westminster four years and expects to graduate in the academic department of the State University next year. We were talking to his father last Saturday and he says that the young man insists that whatever success he has attained in school he owes to the early training he received under Prof. M. W. Daugherty, when the latter was in the Ironton schools.

The following is taken from the Colton, California Courier of April 5th: "Merriment reigned supreme at the E. T. Elgan home on North Ninth street Friday evening, for within the hospitable residence a jolly company of young people had gathered to 'spring' a surprise on one of their number, Garr Elgan, his sister, Miss Brilla Elgan, and Miss Annis Shehorn being instrumental in the assembling of the conspirators. The young man's birthday falls during the week of spring vacation, but as many of his friends were to be out of town at that time the occasion of the birthday party was advanced a few days. Accepting an invitation from one of his boy chums for dinner and then recalled by telephone to his own home somewhat later in the evening the victim of the plot had no suspicion of anything out of the ordinary was going on and was taken with complete surprise when on arrival a laughing crowd of girls and boys confronted him in the gaily decorated rooms."

The charter members of the proposed chapter of the Order of Eastern Star which will be installed in Ironton next month met in the Masonic Hall Monday afternoon. Ironton was chosen as the name of the new Chapter. Mrs. J. M. Hawkins was elected Matron and Mrs. E. L. Barnhouse, Associate Matron. W. R. Edgar was chosen Patron. Following are the names of the charter members: W. R. Edgar and wife, J. M. Hawkins and wife, W. R. Edgar, Jr., and wife, I. G. Whitworth and wife, A. M. Madigan and wife, R. A. Knapp and wife, Chas. E. Downey and wife, Mrs. Chas. J. Tual, Mrs. Lizzie Baird, Mrs. Wm. Trauernicht, Mrs. Dr. Barnhouse, Mrs. A. Roehry, Mrs. L. A. McKee, Mrs. J. C. Forshee, Mrs. Fred Kindell, Sr., Misses Annie Katha, Grace Whitworth and Maude Langdon. Others had signified their desire of wanting to join, but as the charter membership is limited to twenty-five members they will have to wait until after the Chapter is installed before affiliating.

The "Clansman" at Ironton.

Compared to a small minority of assailants, "The Clansman," Thomas Dixons famous play, has found millions of supporters and defenders.

It has been warmly endorsed by the Governors of States wherein the Reconstruction scenes occurred and approved by the municipal authorities of New York, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha and other cities. The Police Commissioner of the District of Columbia refused to suppress the play at the protest of the negroes in the Capital city. Judge Barnes of Superior Court of Chicago, set a precedent for other jurists when, in denying an injunction against "The Clansman," he declared the negro had no special or peculiar privileges as a race, claiming that neither white, yellow or black races, could demand immunity from criticism. The negroes have no more ground to stop performance of "The Clansman" than the Jews have to suppress "The Merchant of Venice" or the Japanese "The Mikado."

The company which produces the play this season is made up mostly of actors and actresses who are natives of the South and the show has always been run by the Southern Amusement Company which is composed of Geo. H. Brennan, Thos. Dixon, the author, and other well known Southern men. In order that everyone in the south may see this great play, it is making a tour of the smaller towns this season for the first time and the company carries their own theatre which is of canvas and is said to be the most completely equipped theatre of its kind in the world. Many towns of the south with population of five thousand or more have no theatre with stage large enough to produce this play and accommodate the 30 people necessary to give the show, and Mr. Dixon believes the people of the smaller cities have as much right to see "The Clansman" as the people of the large cities. It will be seen here in Ironton on Thursday, April 17th.—Adv.

School Notes.

The cold, rainy weather has been bad on attendance.

Ironton has two entries in the essay contests at Cape Girardeau. One in the boys' contest and one in the girls' contest. These essays were selected from the number written by the entire high school and will speak well for the school.

We also hope to have representatives in other contests as the dates come on. We expect to send a representative in the recitation, extemporaneous debate, and some of the athletic contests.

Ironton high school team will play its first game of base ball on Saturday afternoon in our home field against Fredericktown high school. Come out and see the game. They will play in the old field, near the hub factory. Game will be called about one o'clock.

Last week we gave a short outline of our high school course in English. This week we give history. The course in history covers four years and is arranged in chronological order. In the first year a careful study is made of ancient history with greatest emphasis on Greek and Roman history. Stressing their institutions, Science, Art and Mythology. A notebook and outline maps are made of the most significant events, transfers and changes of territory. The second year continues the same general plan and covers the mediaeval and modern periods. The notebook and outlines are required. The third year takes up English constitutional history and covers the entire field from the earliest period. Stress is placed on origin, growth and development of civil and religious freedom, as well as civil and industrial development. This course is followed in the fourth year by American constitutional history in a similar manner. Assigned readings and reports are required in all history classes and forms no small part of regular work.

The lecture at the high school on Monday morning by Mrs. B. W. Loomis was on malaria. She tells us that malaria is one of the oldest infectious diseases. The Romans intimated that it might come from some minute parasite gaining access to the body. That it is a germ disease, transmitted by a mosquito, was not definitely known until 1897. The life cycle in the mosquito is twelve days and is about as follows: the mosquito sucks up the malarial parasite from the blood of a malarial patient. The parasite bores through the wall of the stomach of the mosquito and multiplies in the body cavity. Thence through the salivary glands to the bill, and thus to whomsoever he bites. There are three types of these parasites, but the discussion of them was too technical for this brief review. The results are about the same. They break down the red blood cells and free poisons in the blood. The life cycle of the three types in man vary from one to three days. The well known chill is due to the closing of the surface blood vessels by these parasites. Quinine is the specific medicine. Preventive measures consist in destroying the wigglers. This can be done by filling up puddles, cover others with oil once a week, protect mosquitoes from malaria and well persons from mosquitoes.

Des Arc Items.

We are still having winter.

On account of so much rain Chas. Carter has made slow progress in pumping the water out of the mines here. He thinks, however, he will get it out this week. Then the new company will take charge.

Because of the bad roads not many ties are coming in. C. S. Fitz loaded out twelve cars of switch ties here and at Annapolis. Judge Lucy also loaded several cars of car stock last week.

A Costner shipped a car of hogs and a car of cattle this week. They were fine.

Miss Helen G. Williams of Poplar Bluff visited her grandparents here last Sunday.

Mr. Keathley and wife visited their son, Willie, at Bellevue.

Henry Tucker is about to sell his phone line to a mutual company.

Thos. P. Fitz unloaded a car of flour from De Soto at Des Arc last week.

Samuel Moss and family of Annapolis visited his brother Sunday.

I never saw so much fence wire and bone meal and so many agricultural implements coming in before. Several car loads of bone meal have been received. Chas. Russell of Brunot is unloading a car—30 wagon loads.

R. H. Stevenson took in six cases of eggs Saturday and shipped them Monday. He is paying 12 cents for them. Mr. Stevenson is an up-to-date merchant. Miss Edna Seemidt is his lady clerk. She is always ready to wait on you. I think it much better to have a lady clerk in the dry goods department. They draw trade.

Judge Stevenson, John H. Stevenson and Dr. Farr were subpoenaed to Poplar Bluff last week as witnesses in the case of James Ruble vs. Leach Lumber Co. It was continued until July.

Annapolis News.

San shining bright this morning and the birds are singing.

We have had a bunch of horse traders in town the past two weeks. All young horses, ranging from sixteen to twenty years of age; some with eyes and some without them. Nothing much done the past week except racing and trading horses. James Campbell tried the speed of one yesterday and turned on too much steam, and the young twenty-year-old animal gave way and fell, and the rider got the worst of it and sustained a fractured arm. A physician had to be summoned to set the injured member and it will be two months before he will be able to ride another race. Everybody has traded that has anything to trade. Clarence Moss traded a goat for a horse and traded the horse for a gun, which he sold for $1.50.

Sam Moss and wife went to Des Arc last Saturday to take their granddaughter to the doctor for treatment.

Your correspondent was called to Poplar Bluff last Thursday as a witness for the defense in the case of Jas. Ruble vs. the Leach Lumber Co. I met several people from Ironton county. Among them: W. R. Edgar, Jr., C. Collins, Ironton; Wm. Stevenson, N. A. Farr, James Clifford, J. J. Sutton, James Moss, Frank Moss and several others from Des Arc and Vulcan. I stopped at the Johnson hotel, near the wagon bridge that crosses Black river. They have a fine courthouse and beautiful location. They have a fine looking man on the bench, Judge Foard. He is pleasant and affable to all. We saw a notice on the clerk's office door saying "claim your attendance to-day and get your script." A man cashed our script and they also paid our hotel bills; something they don't do at home.

Wm. Kitchell and Bob Funk were after wolves all day Sunday and finally captured two young ones that they now have on exhibition.

Vester Hackworth returned this morning from a week's visit with his father-in-law, James Moss.

Our old friend, J. E. Grandhomme, passed through town last Thursday on a candy-selling tour. Don't know what success he had, but hope it was good.

Ed and William Moss and Rouse Williams went as far south as Memphis Tennessee. They report very high water. Stock on high knolls standing in water knee deep, and water in the second story of houses.

The creeks have been very high the past week.

Circuit court will convene in Ironton next Monday. These proceedings have been long and tedious. It looks to me like one trial would have done for all eight defendants. Better for everybody.
